Adventure awaits in a young girl's dreams. She conjures up images and myths of epic voyages, monsters, and heroines of the sea from Cessair's epic voyage to the three sister rivers. Said by medieval monks to be Noah's granddaughter and Ireland's first Inhabitant, Cessair dreams of ancient maps with mysterious strong women who took to adventures to the high seas. Join us as we share her dreams in the thirty-third Spraoi Parade Quay of Dreams as sirens call sailors to their doom and golden towers appear at sea.
